

Pierre Youth Wrestlers Continue into Midseason

Over the weekend of January 22nd and 23rd a number of the members of the Pierre Youth Wrestling team competed throughout the state at six different tournaments including Lead/Deadwood, Volga, Highmore, Marion, Britton and Winner. The largest number of wrestlers traveled to Highmore where 30 club members participated with 9 wrestlers receiving first place awards. Hayden Roggow (3rd) and Izik Serbousek (5th) both wrestled in the 6 and under division competing in their first tournament. Additionally, McGuire Raske traveled to Oklahoma to wrestling in the Cliff Keen Tulsa Nationals on January 21st and 2nd. The Tulsa tournament is considered to be one of the toughest youth tournaments in the country with participants from more than 30 different states being represented. McGuire advanced to the semifinals in his weight bracket and lost a close 3-4 match, and eventually placed 6th at the event. Individual performances for each of the wrestlers are noted below:
